The EDICULA is an innovative approach that fuses the interdisciplinary collaboration among the sectors of applied sciences in the protection of CH with humanities disciplines using Extended Reality (XR) technologies, to develop an educational framework to advance scientific transdisciplinary synthesis

OBJECTIVES

- Dissemination through education of the interdisciplinary and innovative research and know-how developed in the rehabilitation of the Holy Aedicule under NTUA leadership
- Cooperation between NTUA, UNIROMA1, BEZ, IAA, HRIAC and promote transdisciplinarity as an educational lever
- Advanced educational material and dissemination by using AR, through cooperation with PerpetielSI
- Reformation of the curricula of the postgraduate programs (NTUA, UNIROMA1, BEZ) that will lead to the promotion of a Joint Master Degree in the field of protection of monuments
- Development of the EDICULA Teachers' Course
- Organization of multiplier events, such as (i) hands-on events in Jerusalem and Alexandria, (ii) Innovation and Educational Sessions in the TMM_CH conference in Athens
- Promotion to students of a professional and entrepreneurship mentality
